

PINEGEE IS LAID AWAY

Last Solemn Funeral Rites Are Performed.

"LEAD KINDLY LIGHT"

Sung by Friends and Lovers of Deceased.

Detroit, July 6.—When the beautiful strains of "Jesus Lover of My Soul," swelled through the Pinegee household this afternoon, the beginning of the funeral services over Hazen S. Pinegee, former governor of Michigan, the house was crowded to its utmost capacity with those who had known and loved the dead man. In life Mr. Pinegee's house was never closed to the public and it was no exception today.

Those for whom room could be found were permitted entrance. The services were held in the east drawing room. A scriptural reading followed the hymn and then Rev. Reed Stewart, a Unitarian minister and Andrew Nehemiah Boynton, ex-Congressionalist, spoke on the life and work of the dead statesman. After prayer the singing of "Lead, Kindly Light," ended the services.

Slowly and reverently the casket was borne from the house to a flag draped caisson, drawn by four horses. Escorted by Governor Dingle and staff, the first regiment Michigan National Guards and the first battalion Michigan Naval Reserve passed slowly down the broad avenue, past thousands of members of various civic organizations who were drawn up at salute on one side of the avenue. As the caisson rolled by each organization fell in behind it, marching to the solemn tones of the dirge played by the bands. The interment was at Elmwood cemetery and the services there were in charge of the Scottish Rite Masters and the G. A. R.

PRINCE HOHENLOHE DEAD

Former German Imperial Chancellor Dies in Switzerland.

Berlin, July 6.—Prince Von Hohenlohe, formerly German imperial chancellor, died at Rapperswil, Switzerland last evening.

Prince Von Hohenlohe's death was generally unexpected here as he left Berlin several weeks ago, apparently in good health, although his increasing weakness was evident. The prince arrived at Rapperswil extremely exhausted. His death is attributed to the weakness of old age. The arrangements for the transportation of the body to Germany and for the obsequies are not yet definitely determined, but it is expected that the remains will be conveyed to the Hohenlohe ancestral home at Schillingsdorf, Bavaria, where the family vault is situated and where the body of Prince Von Hohenlohe's wife is interred. It is also expected that Chancellor Von Bismarck will break his seclusion and attend the funeral.

Although Emperor Wilhelm has fixed his departure on his trip to Norway for Monday next, it is deemed likely that his majesty will once more postpone the date of his starting on his trip in order to enable him to attend the obsequies. Over to Emperor Wilhelm's relationship to Prince Von Hohenlohe, his majesty always called the prince "Uncle Chlodwig."

It is not believed here that the body of Prince Von Hohenlohe will be brought to Berlin before being taken to Schillingsdorf. The officials of the United States embassy informed the correspondent of the Associated Press that the death of the former chancellor was much regretted because of his uniformed kindness to various Americans and American interests.

Prince Von Hohenlohe's attitude, through his association, was always fair and cordial to relations to German-American relations. Although he was an extensive real estate owner, he did not share the Agrarian hostility towards the United States. It was certainly owing, in a large measure, to the prince's friendly spirit, during several trying years, that Germany's relations with the United States never departed from cordiality. He received many Americans and was always friendly to them. At the time of the death of United States Ambassador Theodore Tilton, Prince Von Hohenlohe, in the middle of the night, Secretary Jackson went early in the morning to inform the prince of the death of the ambassador. The prince, he only found Prince Von Hohenlohe ready to receive him.
